

Christmas Song

Roger Whittaker

The fire is warm and quite now.
The embers are a glow.
For every Christmas, love must be,
the greatest gift I know.
My love, its Christmas time
and nothing can I give you.
More then all the love that's mine to give,
for every day we live through.
This Christmas Eve will be,
Christmas carols in harmony,
Christmas carols in harmony.

God rest ye merry, gentlemen,
let nothing you dismay;
for Jesus Christ our Saviour,
was born upon this day.

The streets outside are empty now.
The snow begins to fall.
and for every Christmas, love must be,
the greatest gift I know.
My love, its Christmas time
and nothing can I give you.
More then all the love that's mine to give,
for every day we live through.
This Christmas Eve will be,
Christmas carols in harmony,
Christmas carols in harmony.

The fire is warm and quite now.
The embers are a glow.
For every Christmas, love must be,
the greatest gift I know.
My love, its Christmas time
and nothing can I give you.
More then all the love that's mine to give,
for every day we live through.
This Christmas Eve will be,
Christmas carols in harmony,
Christmas carols in harmony.
