

Interruptions

Rogue Wave

bells go off at 4am eyes wide open i've got no where to go armies marching through my brain the worlds asleep why can't i do the same the bed is the place of the space for none of my case interruptions are always on my mind interruptions you know i'd like to unwind and i do have the time

said i'd like to unwind
but im out of the lonely there's so much trouble in the world every subject lit up like a blanket of hell and everything that i've done wrong i'm so imperfect why can't i ever get up the bed is the place of the space for none of my case

you said it's just emotion you know i'd like to unwind
and i do have the time
