

Stars and Stripes

Rogue Wave

never had a false alarm softer than a baby's arm all hands, alright never had it cost too much she was my eagle eye collapse just fine and hammering the stars and stripes

your stars and stripes,
I wish you waited

maybe we're the last in line passed another fast food sign the dream's alive when she put her hand in mine running from the zombie mob imminent decline wild laughing at the stars and stripes

your stars and stripes,
and you won't be one of the stars but do you really want to?
