

You Have Boarded

Rogue Wave

Now that we got you in the family
Get to the picture all right
You fill me up with my identity
(Joey Ramone) and it feels right
Pretending that I'm on a talk show
Traded some bullets for eyes
Changed up so much I hardly knew you
Crisis averted

You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded

Tonight

Just when you thought you were the sun king
They kick you out of the light
Had to admit it was the saddest solution
I live only in my mind

You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded

To get off the welfare list
We'd be fine to make it all right
To get off the welfare list
The curse is mine
To make it all right
So tight

I live only in my mind

You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded

You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded
You have boarded

To get off the welfare list
We'd be fine to make it all right
