Róisín Murphy

You let me who are we
This is so called true story
We had the time of our lives
Staring up clouds of skin on
Freedom, the ultimate freedom,
Then a bound shall hit
A fiasco!
Who, who's exploiting who?
I just don't know who who who
Who's exploiting who?

Never underestimate,
Create of people in the depths that you will go
Don't leave me,
Cruising at higher speed
In better feeling
You and I know this
So I just wanna ???
You and I are like,
Ticking like a time bomb
Do I receive your reply?

Who, who's exploiting who?
Won't you tell me who who who?
Who's exploiting who?
I just don't know who
Who's exploiting who?
Won't you tell me who who who?
Who's exploiting who?

You're losing your ruling
Out of visible
Get yourself in face of modesty
Should we leave the money and run?
You son of a gun, or
We could go out fighting
Who's exploiting who?

Who, who's exploiting who?
Won't you tell me who who who?
Who's exploiting who?
I just don't know who
Who's exploiting who?
I just don't know who who who
Who's exploiting who?

Who, who's exploiting who?
I just don't know who who who
Who's exploiting who?
I just don't know who,
Who's exploiting who?
Won't you tell me who who who?
Who's exploiting who?
