

Momma's Place

Róisín Murphy

So you think you know it all, well that's just the arrogance of youth.
I've been there and I've done it baby, I'm telling you the truth
Your Momma was a terror
I Used to think i knew it all Thought i could play the game and not get played no but then the fall

Dont you go to pull a fast one used to be an awful rascal you think you've invented being bad

I Used to be a real ruffian Had to become a tough one
Do you think you've invented being bad

I bet you think i look respectable You should have seen me in my prime You'd have thought that i was headed for oh yeah
A life of cry

I bet you think that you are the clever one, clever one
The one that got a way well i've seen them come and seen them go oh yeah but i remain

i am sweet as i could be i've earn respectability do you know i have a history you won't get to pull the wool over my eyes foll
if you think you make a fool me

Nothing you do
The more can you Get out in a club
When i was young
In younger days
I went astray
The momma say
Its all i hates
Its all been done
Your brand new create
And all began at Mommas place
