

I'm Gonna Free Her

Roky Erickson

I remember her in her dream walking down the road
Running from what she did not know
Thinking she was all alone
And I'm gonna free her when I see her
And I'm gonna free her

I can see in my mind her dark sunken eyes
And I can see her pale white face
So many things that I could tell her now
I want to shelter her from anything
Where the fragile beauty of her mind and more is not allowed
And I'm gonna free her when I see her
I'm gonna free her

And I'm gonna give her any of all I may give
All the love she needs
And for beauty she nourishes and she feeds
She's a pure being that only exists from love
She gets trapped when she doesn't have any needs
And I'm gonna free her when I see her
And I'm gonna free her

I'll be her medicine
She'll always be in the best of health
I'll be her color
My spells of the witch to keep to keep her
From not being well and uncaring health

I can think of things we'd be saying
I can think of things we'd do
I can see the way we'd be behaving
I sure do miss her unfairly I do
And I'm gonna free her when I see her
And I'm gonna free her
And I'm gonna free her when I see her
And I'm gonna free her
And I'm gonna free her when I see her
I'm gonna free her
