

Realize You're My Sweet Brown Angel Eyes

Roky Erickson

When you're being my mind not only starts
When you smile it tears me apart
When you kiss me my mind just glows
When you're mine my mind only flows

Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes
Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes

When you are you hunger I never feel
When you aren't blue the love bells to me only peal
When you're when there is no end
When you are when there is no end

Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes
Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes

When we walk I feel no scare
When we walk you are there
When you're when I never need repair
When you're you're here is not there

Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes
Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes

When you are with me my heart starts
When you are not it tears me apart
When you kiss me my mind just grows
When you're mine my mind just knows

Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes
Realize you're my sweet brown angel eyes
