Roky Erickson

No bad places
One has no uses for abuses
Not because it doesn't bring disgraces
One doesn't have to prove one doesn't use them

No bad places
They can take a permanent vacation
One doesn't want to fall on others
Even the slightest of their negative vibration

Staying away from crime not just part of the time
Not because as far as no crime is concerned
The freedom bells always chime
And not just part of the time

There is a category of no stipulations
For good realizations
Never taking a vacation
This is the sensation
