

Give A Little Love

Roll Deep

You just give a little love and it all comes back to you,
You know your gonna be rememberd for the things that you say an

Boof, Yo it's BBB,
Could be anything I wanted to be,
Like movin x-men,
Put the thought in my mind inception,
From the hood where the fullstop don't mean the end of your sen
tance,
We're tryna' get out like attention,
Say cheese when I smile, See cheddar,
In like don't be bitter, be better

I started with nothing but an idea,
Following my own steps in my Nike airs,
Yeah, it was all or nothing,
My story tryna' find a buzz in a lightyear,
I go in when I step outdoors,
You can't put in less and get out more,
I went from opening locks,
To sellin' Jumpers so I'm over the top

You just give a little love and it all comes back to you,
You know your gonna be rememberd for the things that you say an d do

Yo,
And I fully beleive in karma,
So I keep focused and I work harder,
Puttin' my feet down just like a farmer,
Show them love and watch them go faster,
A couple 'dem try and say that we couldn't,
But, yes we can Obama,
And that's why I see supeheroes in all of us Peter Parker
