

Out There

Rollins Band

Walkin' shattered, confused, disturbed and alone
Feeling like someone just ripped your heart out and replaced it with a stone

Wandering as somewhere someone out there feels like you do Open your eyes to realize that the only one holding on to you is you

When you're out there, you're out there
When you're out there, out there, out there, out there, ohh
I've been out there

When you're sitting in your room, lights out, door locked listening to the air

Phone starts ringin' you uplook it, doesn't matter who it is, you don't care

Wonderin' why life can fill you with so much pain

And sometimes all you want to do is crawl away and die

Feelin' so carved out and hollow that you don't even have a tear

They left you cryin'

Lost, lost in the crowd, lost in my room alone

Lost in your eyes, lost in your arms

Lost in myself, I don't know

Where I went

I got lost, just like:

Hated, alienated, thrown down, turned away, turned inside

Solitary confinement turns to solitary refinement

I found myself alone

Mmm, so alone

Reachin' out I can't touch, I open my eyes, I can't see

Putting my feet out on the ground I feel I'm falling

Oh, out there, I'm out there, out there, so cold, so cold, so cold

Out there, I'm out there, I'm out there, I'm out there

Out there, I'm out there, I'm out there, I'm out there

Out there, I'm out there, I'm out there, I'm out there

Oh

So cold, so cold, so cold, so cold

When I'm out there, when you're out there, when I'm out there
