

You Didn't Need

Rollins Band

You turned me in and you burned me out
You pulled me in and you locked me out
You ripped your feelings right across my back
You didn't see that I was bleedin'
You looked at me and I saw right through you
You looked away when I spoke right to you

You didn't need to do that to me
When I touched you, did you feel it?
Did you ever feel anything at all?
Do you ever lie awake at night?
Do you ever think of me?
I've got my arms wrapped around myself
You've got your arms around someone else
I'll lie to myself
I'll tell myself I'm not down, down, down
I'm not down
Some people are better left alone
Some people are better left alone

I didn't want it but I get it anyway
I didn't want it but I couldn't get away
I can't deny it, I miss you
Even though it hurts inside
In my dreams I kiss you
I keep a lie alive

You didn't need to do that to me
I wrack my brain tryin' to remember
Anything I did to you
I wreck my brain tryin' to dismember
Any part attached for you
I'm sorry I still feel this pain inside
It shows on my face like a scar
It's something I can't hide, I can't hide, I can't hide, no!

Some people are better left alone
Some people are better left alone
It hurts so much when you've got nothing to say
It hurts so much to have to walk away

Walk away, walk away, walk away, walk away
walk away, walk away, walk away
Walk away, walk away, walk away, walk away
walk away, walk away, walk away
