

Do You Like This

Rome

Ohhh
yes you are
tell me the truth

Tell me the truth now baby have you found another lover someone who cares
and holds you tight
i won't cry
i won't shed a tear
but when your well runs dry you're gonna miss my loving baby the way i hold and touch and kiss

The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that

now one day
you'll see, it'll be reality and all pain will come you'll search for me
high and low
but all remains
is a memory of how i used to hold and touch and squeeze you baby I,

The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that

and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
The way i do you like this
and do you like that
