She want to ride that wayne train So I'ma bag her like baggage claim We smoke that mary not plain jane And everything is just fine I keep a picture of her smile In the back of my mind I grab the back of her head She throw it back like rewind

I put her face in the pillow Taste it a little Shorty said she feels like She sitting on a missile

I say 5, 4, 3, 2 The 1 can only be you Shorty said oh lord I'm coming I say me too My love has no equal, Get on top And if you ride this train Get off at your stop

This is the last time The last chance for you to go there There's one ticket left And girl it's for you baby The last ride girl you wont find this feeling nowhere You better hurry 'cause the train is leaving
