

Give You Up

Ron Pope

I guess I should stop drinkin'
They're closin down the bar
I missed my bus to nowhere
So now I'm standin' in the dark
I think it might be tuesday
By now you're getting dressed for work
And I wish i could come home to you
I hope by now you've found someone to treat you just how you de serve

And I sing I don't wanna give, I don't wanna give,
I don't wanna give you up
Well I don't wanna give you up

I swear to god I'm freezin'
But it's a July afternoon
I search the sky for reasons
But every painted cloud ive ever seen still makes me think of y ou
And the second hand seems restless
Cause its been movin' awful slow
And I'm all out of useful questions
And I've got no explanation why i ever let you go

This cocaine makes me anxious
And all this liquor makes me sad
I don't sleep much in the evenings
So I spend my afternoons in bed
I wish you could forgive me
I wish that you would take me back
Cause by myself I'm broken
And you're the only thing I ever loved that really loved me bac k

So I don't wanna give, I don't wanna give,
I don't wanna give you up
I don't wanna give you up
And I sing I don't wanna give, I don't wanna give,
I don't wanna give you up
I don't wanna give you up
Well I don't wanna give you up
Well I don't wanna give you up
Well I don't wanna give you up
Well I don't wanna give you up
Well I don't wanna give you up
