

Never Let You Go

Ron Pope

Strung out and the summers are long, bars close and I'm taking you home,
Too tired so I'm sleeping alone. Cold sweat then I hang up the phone and say,

"Hey you know, love will never let you go." (2x)
Turning 'round in circles cause it's part of the show.
Hey, you know, love will never let you go.

Late nights it's an easy charade, sunrise on mistakes that you made,
Too far so there's no turning back, and who you used to be don'
t matter much now.

"Hey you know, love will never let you go." (2x)
Turning 'round in circles cause it's part of the show.
Hey, you know, love will never let you go.

"Hey you know, love will never let you go." (2x)
Turning 'round in circles cause it's part of the show.
Hey, you know, love will never let you go.
