

Wherever You Go

Ron Pope

'Cause when the daylight bends I'll follow you
And if the pavement ends I'll drive it off the road
When the daylight bends I'll follow you wherever you go
Wherever you go

I'd say I miss you but think I'd choke on the words
Dreamt a picture and you don't know how it hurts
I've been thinking just how to tell you
So here I go
So here I go

'Cause when the daylight bends I'll follow you
And if the pavement ends I'll drive it off the road
When the daylight bends I'll follow you wherever you go
Wherever you go

I had a nightmare
Woke to the sound of your voice but you don't sleep here
I lay awake in the dark
I've been screaming but you don't hear me at all
So here I go

'Cause when the daylight bends I'll follow you
And if the pavement ends I'll drive it off the road
When the daylight bends I'll follow you wherever you go
Wherever you go

'Cause when the daylight bends I'll follow you
And if the pavement ends I'll drive it off the road
When the daylight bends I'll follow you wherever you go

'Cause when the daylight bends I'll follow you
And if the pavement ends I'll drive it off the road
When the daylight bends I'll follow you wherever you go
Wherever you go
Wherever you go
Wherever you go
Wherever you go
