Joy and Pain

Ronan Keating

Heaven ain't your place girl , not now anyways And in this hell yeah yeah , you cant erase All of the pain , that you've been given That ain't the reason yeah , that you've been driven

Watch the hand as it's movin' ,

24 times around Every second's like a minute ,

till you're back on the ground

I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) But I know I'm gonna see you again

Girl we had our chances , we knew from the start That we could take heaven yeah and tear it apart tear it apart You gotta take a chance girl , you gotta lead me by the hand And turn this WILD ONE , into a family man..COME ON

Many miles been between us since I walked away Girl I'm sorry what I did to you , this time I'm here to stay

I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) But I know baby I'm gonna see you again

But I know yeah I've felt pain I've felt joy yeah

Heaven ain't your place girl , not now anyways And in this hell yeah yeah , you cant erase All of the pain , that you've been given That ain't the reason yeah , that you've been driven

Watch the hand as it's movin' ,

24 times around Every second's like a minute ,

till you're back on the ground

I've felt joy and I've felt pain (and the girls say) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (and the girls say) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry) I've felt joy and I've felt pain (girl I'm sorry [X3]) But I know I'm gonna see you again
