

On My Way

Ronan Keating

I am on my way, yeahhhh
Rain won't catch you and the wind won't blow
Where you're blowing no one knows it
It's all right now
Clouds are forming in the neon sky
You wonder how, you wonder why
I, I am on my way
If we knew the end what we started all
See the pride before the falling
It's over now
You can't break up what you can't break down
Life can sometimes spin you around
And I am on my way, I am on my way

'cause my priority is no more you and me
The world will always turn beneath our feet, yeah
My philosophy is overtaking me
There's nothing left to say
There's nothing left to see

There's a hole in your heart
When the rain gets in
So, you pull up your collar and you start again
And, I am on my way
I am on my way

My philosophy is overtaking me

You watch her leaving on the evening train
You know she won't be back again
And it's all right now
There is no right
There is no wrong
You live your life keep moving on
And, I am on my way
I am on my way (3x)
I am on my way, yeah (3x)
I am on my way, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
, yeah, yeah
I am on my way, yeah (2x)

'cause my philosophy is overtaking me
'cause my priority is no me you and me
I am on my way
