

Stronger Than I Am

Ronan Parke

If I close my eyes,
I know you're near me,
Always right there,
When I need you the most.

You are my shelter, my shoulder when I'm weary,
But I'm the strongest man whenever you're close,
With your loving, I'm something, and you need to know...

If I could just reach a little higher,
Become a little wiser, I have just you to thank.
I only see clearly when you guide me,
Succeed when you're beside me.
All I need is your helping hand,
To be a little stronger than I am.
A little stronger...

Every step, I take of this journey,
I wanna share every moment with you,
To know at the end of each day, you will hold me,
And even when it's hard to win, I can't lose.
Because of you this dream I'm living it's true...

If I could just reach a little higher,
Become a little wiser, I have just you to thank.
I only see clearly when you guide me,
Succeed when you're beside me,
All I need is your helping hand.
To be a little stronger than I am

With your loving, I'm something and you need to know...

(If I could just reach a little higher
Become a little wiser)

I have just you to thank.
I only see clearly when you guide me,
Succeed when you're beside me.
All I need is your helping hand.
To be a little stronger than I am...

To be a little stronger... than I am
