I Just Get Lonely

Ronnie Dunn

Oh, it's just the wine
I shouldn't be drinking
Things cross my mind
I don't need to be thinking

When it comes to you
I got a weak heart
It's hard going through
Being this far apart

The blues come and go on me
Baby, I just get lonely, lonely, oh

Oh, I try to fight it
I try not to call
I keep coming back
To what went wrong

Wish I could just let it
Go on and be over
I know I'll regret it
In the morning when I'm sober

It's hurt talking, it's not me, oh baby
I just get lonely, oh, I

The voice you're hearing
At the end of the line
It's just hurt talking
It's not mine

This moment of weakness
These things that I feel
It's not anything
Time won't heal

Oh, baby, I just get lonely, oh I
I just get lonely, oh
I just get lonely, oh

Lonely, lonely
