

Little Giant

Roo Panes

Thought that I was in, my prime.
But I was naked, dressed in my pride.
You see through the things, I hide.
Yeah, it's still same, be yourself, you'll turn out alright.

You made me run like I never run,
Try like I never tried,
Fight like I've never fought,
Made me want it.
You made me run like I've never run,
Try like I've never tried,
Fight like I've never fought,
Made me want it.

I'm always saying, I'll make it right my dear,
'Cause losing you's my greatest fear.
I know I found all the play and decide
Yeah, it's still said, don't be stupid, you'll turn out alright

You make me run like I never run,
Try like I never tried,
Fight like I've never fought.
Made me want it.
You make me run like I never run,
Try like I never tried,
Fight like I've never fought.
Made me want it.

Who said it's easy, to be loved,
When you look over your shoulder and only see the wasteland?
Just got to carry what you can,
Have the heart of a giant, but know you're a man.

Who said it's easy, to be loved,
When you look over your shoulder and only see the wasteland?
Just got to carry what you can,
Have the heart of a giant, but know you're a man.

Start small, grow tall.
Start small, grow tall.
Start small, grow tall.
Start small, grow tall.
