

Silver Moon

Roo Panes

Down by the waters,
Where I once dreamed, beneath the silver moon they will find me

My heart a pilgrim, my mind a slave
Oh my eyes can't stand to see the light of day.
Cause life is lost without love, wouldn't you say.

I wish you to would follow, me to my peace,
then meet your hands all beneath your knees.

My love is faithful.

Your love is true, and I know the silver moon will shine for yo u.

Oh I know the silver moon will shine for you

Ohhh
