

The Weekend

Rookie of the Year

You found a new love now,
He is your type.
No need to pose now child,
I had to say good-bye.
I heard things were better now, with your wonderful life.
Your life is so perfect now, but mine just died.
Do you miss me when I'm feeling sad?
I called your friends to see what you had said.

Tonight it's the weekend, go have fun.
It's the weekend; you never loved me at all, at all, at all,
at all, at all, at all,
You never loved me at all, at all,
You never loved me at all, at all,

And the places that you go at night,
Are secrets in the back of your mind.
And you tell me your not second best, know that it's a lie, it' s a lie.
