

Haunted

Room 2012

Every step I take
I see your face
In each way of pain
In a house without your life
Anymore
Just don't feel the same
If I might not speak
What my heart would say
I let it be and go away

Midnight's gone
And it's been too long
I wanna shadow to want myself
You left me wanting nothing else
In this house

This house is haunted
Since you left me, baby
This heart is broken
And I'm going crazy
When you say "I love you"
Left me so consumed
Your presence is in every room
My heart is haunted
Everything I wanted
Left with you, baby
I'm haunted

You say our love is gone
It had to fail
But I still feel you here
Angels never cry
Bring warmth outside
Am I feeling heaven's tears?
so what I used to
Is more than I could go away

Another sound is say
But I can't forget
Deep inside I feel the pain
Cause I won't see you back again
In this house

Chorus

There's nothing left anymore
Gotta let you go
No shame, no hurt, no more
I gotta let it go (oh yeah)

Chorus 2x
