

Rainy Day In The Sun

Room Eleven

Leave them all outside today
Let them all laugh, it's OK
They'll think you hide
Now is not the time to play
You lost something
Just start looking

It's another rainy day... for you
Another rainy day in the sun

Please don't avoid gravity
Let it pull you down
Don't waste your time laughing it off
Or try to unfold that frown

Rainy day in the sun
Rainy day
Another rainy day for you
Another rainy day in the sun

They say they're young,
wild and free
While their castles collapse in the sea
It's not what it seems
Let them all be
You'll soon find yellow and white
When you're done with blue days
Coming out of it takes a little while You'll know when

I need rainy days
I need rainy days
I need rainy days
Even in the sun
