

All or Nothing

Rooney

I'm a'changing every day, changing every single way
I can't stop this train I'm on when it's still in motion
I don't want to fail you now, but it's a'coming somehow
Look at me here on my knees, begging you please

If I were you, I'd be hurting, too
'Cause it's all or nothing, all or nothing now

What happened to the golden days?
Was it just another teenage craze?
It's so hard to let it go when it's all you know
I don't want to compromise the way I feel behind my eyes
Listen to the conversation, give it time

If I were you, I'd be hurting, too
'Cause it's all or nothing, all or nothing now
If you were me, I know you'd see
That it's all or nothing, all or nothing now

Come on, do you think I just want to use you?
Don't think I can't see through all the hurting you do

'Cause I'm all or nothing...now
