

I Don't Wanna Lose You

Rooney

You're looking at me, you're lost in a stare
Well, I have to admit I didn't know you were there
We're trying our best to keep this alive,
But neither one of us knows how to survive

I push you, I pull you
I hurt you, I argue
I don't wanna lose you, I don't wanna lose you
I fight you, I hold you
I hate you, I still love you
I don't wanna lose you...

I don't want to think about yesterday
I know what I said
But the more you put up with me, the worse I get Come on, teach me a lesson
And make me regret the things I said

It's not you, it's not me
It's just something we can't see
I'm giving up, giving in
Yeah, I'm gonna let it be

I don't wanna lose you, I don't wanna lose you [4x]
