

Simply Because

Rooney

Can you guess
Why I haven't called you back
I said I'm screening calls
Even your calls

Why am I
Such a bad guy
I'm just doing other things
Like you do other things

I could never really love you
Simply because, simply because
I could never really love you
Simply because of the trust
Of the trust

You're up all night
Fixing your hair
But you're not satisfied
With that I'm satisfied

I'm doing things
Like I said before
I'm not partying
I'm parting from the non-creative
Yeah

I could never really love you
Simply because, simply because
I could never really love you
Simply because of the trust
Of the trust

You've lost my love
Ooh yeah

I could never really love you
Simply because, simply because
I could never really love you
Simply because, simply because
I could never really love you
Simply because, simply because
I could never really love you
Simply because of the trust
Of the trust

You've lost my love
Ooh trust
