

You come around, come around sometimes
You don't say it, but something's on your mind
It's an ugly, disgusting business
Working hard, paying for your mistress
Look at you looking like a big shot
Buying time is all you ever got

Who do you, tell me who do you think I am
Tell me now, tell me it's over
Who do you, tell me who do you think you are You're talking like you're my Father

Why should I try
When it's all a lie
Everyone's got an alibi
What do you want
What do you need
Everyone's trying to suckceed

What happened to the promises you made
You didn't keep em', you're a jack of all trades
You're spread thin and someone's gotta suffer
I can take it, I've been getting tougher
You wanna be, wanna be my best friend
Well it depends on what you make and what you spend

You can't change me, can't tell me what I am
You're not a pimp and I'm not your little man
Send me off, I'd rather you send me away
I don't know you cause you don't hear a word I say

Why should I try
When it's all a lie
Everyone's got an alibi
What do you want
What do you need
Everyone's trying to suckceed

You come around here tell me it's the end
I thought we were brothers, thought you were my friend
You're just like the others, fickle and fake
If you bring enough for them you can have your cake

Why should I try
When it's all a lie
Everyone's got an alibi
What do you want
What do you need
Everyone's trying to suckceed
