

Who're They?

Root

I know the thoughts of the dead
Even the thoughts of the unborn
I can feel their touch when I dream
When dreams come true ...

They talk to me, they sing to me
I blend with their breath
I become one of them
I don't want to go back ...

Once I will not return.

DAEMON: ...Well we woke him up from a deep Slumber. He was the Last of us who overmastered all the Secret Formulae. We knew he would stand by our side. And so it came to be.
