

Back To The Real

Rootwater

Stay now face to face
Try to understand
What have you done with your fuckin' life?!!

You've turned the life into earning money
You 've become a bionic machine

Counting the cash
And despising of people you have a feeling you are - completely different

You forgot , you were Alive , now You are dead
Realize you are not the God

Money - You Have !
So now try to eat the cash!
Or buy the New Virtual Lover

You have new wheels
I have many, many feelings
You feel only hate or greed

When I follow my life ,
I follow my Spirit
You shit yourself
For not to lose the wealth sell your fear and ...

Jump - into the real life
Jump - get back to the real

Life,life, real life
Get back , to the real life
Life,life, real life
Get back to the real

There's no way , like gettin' back to the real
If you want to really, really feel
No possibility for the Fool to buy wisdom
The fool is only fool , not alive

So Jump , Jump , Jump into the real
And You will never be illusion
Stop with the fear
And acquaint any cute girl
Leave all the movers and shakers and

Jump into the real life
Jump - get back to the real
