

Born Again

Rootwater

I don't remember the home
I don't remember the love
I don't remember the sound of my mother's voice
My mother's voice...

I remember only the screams of terrified people
They've seen fire and pain, and nothing more
And I was born again, so cold
So inhuman
So quiet
so calm, so calm, so calm (so calm)

Now people meeting me, avert their eyes
It is a mixture of fear and disdain...

Do you think I'm different?
Sure I am
But you can see only my skin
And you don't know my feelings at all

It's time to tell the truth!

Meet me now! Look at my face!
Do you think you can walk in my shoes?
Stay, don't move!
Don't follow my way!
You have your life, let me have my own!
Spirit, spirit, only spirit knows me!
No one knows me, no one can stop me!
Try to feel the same, try to understand,
Nobody feels the same! Nobody understands!
Do you see the blood? Haven't you seen it before?
Have you seen the crime? I can tell you more!
Say, if you want,
Say, if you can,
No longer you'll be the same
Like I'm not the same!

Witcher, witcher, witcher, watch out!
Witcher, witcher, witcher, watch out!
Witcher, witcher, witcher, watch out!
Witcher, witcher, witcher, watch out!
