

Living In The Cage

Rootwater

My dream is over
Unrelentingly the day has come
His pain is closer
Like nails hammered into my eyes

It's a time to go, like every day for war
It's a time for, it's time to execute the law of everyday cage
Come on come on - cage!
Come on come on - cage!
Come on come on - cage!
Never show the face

I curse the morning
I curse the figures passing me
My fear is growing
My fear comes out, my hate of being

But years ago, there was different day
The day with no fury
I muse, how could I lose (it)
How could i choose the fury
I muse, how could I lose (it)
How could i choose the fury

And now I stay, torn in my cage
Nobody will feel, nobody'll see
My bloody tears

It's a time to go, like every day for war
It's a time for, it's time to execute the law of everyday cage
Come on come on - cage!
Come on come on - cage!
Come on come on - cage!
Never show the face

But years ago, there was different day
The day with no fury
I muse, how could I lose (it)
How could i choose the fury
I muse, how could I lose (it)
How could i choose the fury

And now I stay in cage, far away from the sun
I never let anyone touch my wounds and scars
I always look around, expecting the blow
And somewhere deep inside of me I'm waiting for Anyone.. anyone who'll come
Anyone.. who will recognize me
Anyone.. hear me, hear me
Anyone.. cure me, heal me
Anyone to bring my faith back
Anyone to fill up my grave
Anyone to thaw my blood
Anyone to rise me
Anyone...
