Road to Hell

Rory Gallagher

Soft-soaped on the road to Hell So many times I've tripped and fell No chances left The sky is falling down on me, yeah

One step from the demons fire Can't stop the train and flames get higher Too late to save me The wall's coming down on me, yeah

Broken wishes and broken dreams Close to the edge, I cut it lean, no regrets The flame's getting higher on me, yeah

Push the tempo, push the time
No excuses, not this time
No way out, the ground's opening up on me
Yeah, oh yeah

Can you feel the heat? Coming from the street Pouring down on me, yeah

They tried to keep me on a long thin chain Thanks, but no thanks just the same You saw it coming
The devil's got the jump on me, yeah

Lost soul on the road to Hell Wind up the motor and ring the bell No stopping now
The pain's coming down on me, yeah

Straight time on the road to Hell No mercy time at the wishing well No turning back The Angels gonna cry on me, yeah
