

The New Utah

Rosaline

Lets get on with this tonight, do what the pages tell us until we burn them on sight (Until we burn them on the sight)

Lets get on with this tonight, do what the pages tell us and dance on fire through the night (Dance on fire through the night)

This is real enough to outline in chalk weathered broken nails scrape for a couple thousand miles down the sky board

I know that everything, everything falls apart in the end, but it's alright man
Just run into, run into the open arms of your friends, they'll be there for you Turn away, turn away from the arson in your head, I know it bur ns man
But everything falls apart

But the calender says "let's celebrate" and the time is always right
So let's go (let's go), let's get on with this tonight
I know this is a fairytale in my head, but it helps me to sleep soundly
At the end of the highway, you'll be waiting for me

I know that everything, everything falls apart in the end, but
it's alright man
Just run into, run into the open arms of your friends, they'll
be there for you
Turn away, turn away from the arson in your head, I know it bur
ns man
But everything falls apart

This scene needs a change, and we're gonna give it to you.
This scene needs a change.
I need a change.

Accelerating like anxiety ascending harmonically.
Accelerating like anxiety ascending harmonically.

I know that everything, everything falls apart in the end, but
it's alright man
Just run into, run into the open arms of your friends, they'll
be there for you
Turn away, turn away from the arson in your head, I know it bur
ns man
But everything falls apart
