

I Wonder

Rosanne Cash

Every time I'm near you
My heart jumps all about
My mind can't figure out what to do
But I've been disillusioned
Enough by love turned blue
Your love may be true, but I wonder

Am I supposed to think
That your love will be true
And deny the part of me
That says you'd leave me too

'Cause yesterday reminds me
That what I've lost is gone
Your love may linger on, but I wonder

Am I supposed to think
That your love will be true
And deny the part of me
That says you'd leave me too

'Cause yesterday reminds me
That what I've lost is gone
Your love may linger on, but I wonder
Ooh, I wonder
Yeah, I wonder

Ooh, I wonder
Ooh
