

Land Of Nightmares

Rosanne Cash

I love you till I just can't feel
I need you till it makes me numb
We hang on a noose of subtle abuse
Like there's nothing to fear

Livin' in the land of nightmares

The ocean's calm outside my door
The storm rages inside my head
In perfect control so no one could know
I smile but I'm not even there

Livin' in the land of nightmares

A vision full of sound and light
I think, she's holdin' back all night
With bitter desire, she stoops to conspire
She is the reason I'm here

Livin' in the land, livin' in the land of nightmares
