Let's Eat Home

Rosemary Clooney

I like to stroll on the Costa Dell Soul at sunrise And to me Waikiki is the place to be speakin' fun wise I like to dine in the foreign time palatso You can laugh and call me fatso, that's okay by me

I like to stick with the first class ticket buyers Setting trends with my trend setting friends The frequent fliers

I like to shop on the Champs De Elesee Eat curry in old Bombay And spend New Years eve in either Tel Aviv or Rome

But if it's all the same to you Let's eat home

I like to lunch with the bunch in old Savanna I know a swell motel North of Callispell Montana I like to eat in my suite at the Savoy Plaza And I know a bar in Ghaza, where they serve goblet tea

I jump a jet, just to ensemble one set in Rio To say 'Hi, how's the folks?' May be swap a few jokes with the trio

And then it's off to my condo in Spain Hang glide off the coast of Maine And spend Labour Day in either Montreal or Rome

But if it's all the same to you Let's eat home
