A sense of wonder, finding what is real What went on here, taught me how to feel We're alone in the memories, of how we used to be It's our time to be honest, our time to be free

You're still breathing
Show your eyes to me
Your heart's still beating
Show your eyes
Show your eyes

Frozen under, at times we pay no mind What went on here, taught me how to shine It's our time to be honest, our time to be free

You're still breathing
Show your eyes to me
Your heart's still beating
Show your eyes
Show your eyes

We're alone here, in the memories, of how we used to be Whoa, our time to be free Whoa, our time to be free

You're still breathing
Show your eyes to me
Your heart's still beating
Show your eyes
Show your eyes

You're still breathing
Show your eyes to me
Your heart's still beating
Show your eyes
Show your eyes
