

White And Gold

Roses Are Red

I'm doing all I can to wait until I hear this straight from you
Well I'm mixing colors, mixing signals, missing you
I've tried a thousand times
Breathe deep between the lines.
Fade away, it will fix everything

We've come this far and I don't need a reason
Asleep alone come wandering again
We've come this far and I don't need a reason

So I'll leave the light on for you
I'll twist the knife in for you
Leave me alive until you lay down by my side

So tell me something parting silence
Everything to point of view
I'm hearing what I'd like to hear believing you
We tried a thousand times.
Breathe deep between the lines
To walk away is to fix everything

We've come this far and I don't need a reason
Asleep alone come wandering again
We've come this far and I don't need a reason

So I'll leave the light on for you
I'll twist the knife in for you
Leave me alive until you lay down by my side

You twist the knife again and again
And again and again and again
