Shadow

Rosetta Stone

No more... A shade beyond remains in dust Ashes... Supernal sin breeds mistrust Ring the false You know it stands to reason Guide the lost Through this confusion

Shadow and shade for always Lord it over

And we lay the cards To ease our minds To run for cover To leave behind Leave behind this...

Sortilage... Beyond the age of premonition Far from here The afterglow of pure resplendence Horizons In hand

Temporal virtues of forgotten lands And nocturnal skies Will shine for me A blessing in your eyes

Coming events cast shadows before...
