

The Witch

Rosetta Stone

Can't you see me running
I am really running for my life
Guess from where I'm coming
Guess why I'm running for my life.

Can't you see the witch
can't you see the witch
can't you see the witch by my side.

Can't you see my death fear
I can hear her voice shouting everywhere
Who know what I've could done
It must be so bad that a witch does care.
