

Red In Tooth And Claw

Rosetta

I can't wash the taste of stone away
Red in tooth and claw
We live the same way
Mementos kept this real
Kept home for me somehow
Forgotten years and cares
Memories reflect, repent, relive Relinquish all we know,
those same mistakes again

Disengage ascent
Transmissions were lost when satellites collide

Europa is waiting with her iron core tonight

Europa
Burning dimmer now
Set wings ablaze
It's all I have of you,
are radio waves now

This is my bleeding now
Crying out for more
The burden that I am

Europa carry me

Lift
Wake
