Rosette

The spirit is rolling but the flesh is weak

In the summer season
Drowning under the scorching sun
A beauty caught my eye in the distance
Maybe with persistence
I could convince her to share her secrets
Oh her seductive sexual dance draws me in
I need you now
My upper lip quivers
As tiny tiny beads of sweat fall from my brow
Are you a dream
Are you a figment of my imagination
Too good to be true
From the heavens god sent you
I'm truly blessed to make your acquaintance
Enchante
It's a pleasure

In the desert sands across the seven seas
My hips sway like palms in the breeze
Travel far stranger in this place
Forbidden fruit, don't you wanna taste
(baby don't you wanna taste)

Follow my hands over my skin
Thirsty eyes drinking me in
Voodoo lamps, shake my silhouette
I lick my lips as I watch you sweat

I'm the shining oasis you need to cool you
I'll show you every page of the kama sutra

Make you
Feel like
Tonight's 1000 different nights baby
Take you
Higher
On my magic carpet ride baby
Touch you
Love you
In a thousand different ways till the
Last grain
Of sand
Falls and you wake it was never

Low light creeps in spying from the door
Glowing skein silk falling to the floor
Body's twisting, turning like a storm
Exotic secrets keep you wanting more
(I will keep you wanting more)

I'm the shining oasis you need to cool you
I'll show you every page of the kama sutra

Make you

Tonight's 1000 different nights baby
Take you
On my magic carpet ride baby
Touch you
Love you
In a thousand different ways till the
Last grain
Of sand
Falls and you wake it was never

My exotic beauty
Miss desert rose
With your soft supple lips
You have no idea the love you inspire
What I wouldn't give to spend one hour in your bosom
Our bodies intertwined and due to caress her
Thrust of the hips and in a flash
You're gone

Make you
Tonight's 1000 different nights baby
Take you
On my magic carpet ride baby
Touch you
Love you
In a thousand different ways till the
Last grain
Of sand
Falls and you wake it was never

(Never)
