C'est L'amour

Rosi Golan

I felt it in my heart, that it was time, a change of scenery To get a little lost, to feel alive, and reach beyond me I walked into the first café in France I'm so cliché... When I saw him I felt the room divide into pieces Oh the lights danced around us just like stars in the sky One night in Paris with a man I barely knew, I'm lost in a mome nt C'est La vie, C'est La chance, C'est L'amour It happened all too fast, the perfect night, for perfect strang ers The way he wrapped the curls of his mustache around his fingers And like a little girl who's never been to Disneyland ... When I saw him I felt the room divide into pieces Oh the lights danced around us just like stars in the sky One night in Paris with a man I barely knew, I'm lost in a mome nt C'est La vie, C'est La chance, C'est L'amour And when I think I about him, I wish I had it all, to do again because I Wanna be just like Mary so let them eat their cake When I saw him I felt the room divide into pieces Oh the lights danced around us just like stars in the sky One night in Paris with a man I barely knew, I'm lost in a mome nt C'est La vie, C'est La chance, C'est L'amour
