

Flicker

Rosi Golan

How will I know if I can get through this, without a sign pointing me somewhere|
But if I believe that I can get through this, maybe I'll find that I can get somewhere

Cause my heart's in two places and I'm feeling like candle burning at both ends
Till it flickers, flickers, flickers

Out on the road watching the sky change, oh jealousy born from this moment
But if I was gold, I wouldn't feel it, I would just know it's only a moment

Cause my heart's in two places and I'm feeling like candle burning at both ends
Till it flickers, flickers, flickers
And my hearts in two places, where I am and where I'm going Burning at both ends till it flickers, flickers, flickers

Show me where I'm going, I will take it in Even without knowing, I will take it in maybe I'll find that I could get somewhere
