Have You Seen My Love

Rosie Thomas

Have you seen my love? Is he far away? Have you seen the one for me? His face lights up my day

I won't let one boy steal a kiss or call me his Instead I'll wait for his voice to call out to mine and carry t hese daydreams away

Have you seen my love? Is he far away? Have you seen the one for me? I won't let him get him get away

Please tell him that I'm waiting for him Praying for him Night and day For now I'll be a lonely girl longing for his sweet embrace

Please tell him that I'm waiting for him Praying for him Night and day For now I'll be a lonely girl just long for his sweet embrace
