

In Time

Rosie Thomas

I get so tired of all the talking that I do
How my words just seem wasted on you
Maybe some day when it's all said and done
You'll finally find these words of mine were true

In time
Time

Yeah, I get so tired of all the pretending that I do
When inside all I do is long for you
I'm just waiting for the day
When I'm boarding the next train
And my name is called, and the voice belongs to you

In time
Time

Maybe it's over
What if it's over?
I guess I'll get over you in

In a little while I know I will get over you
Takes a little time, but in time I'll get over you
In a little while I know I will get over you
Just takes time, but in time I'll get over you
[repeat]
