

Getaway

Ross Copperman

Well I'm down again
And nobody knows
Each time I go under
I drown a little longer
Alone

I'm losing ground
Sinking again
Somehow

Strung out on this feeling
Something's gotta change
Thinking about leaving
On a runaway train
Don't know where it's going
But I've seen it all before
All my life dreaming
Of some place so far away
Far away gotta getaway

Can you hear it coming?
Now it's time to go
Fifteen minutes til freedom
And I'm still fighting demons
Alone

I'm breaking out
Finding my way
Somehow

Strung out on this feeling
Something's gotta change
Thinking about leaving
On a runaway train
Don't know where it's going
But I've seen it all before
All my life dreaming
Of some place so far away
Far away gotta getaway

Take me far from here
I promise I won't look back

Strung out on this feeling
Something's gotta change
Thinking about leaving
On a runaway train
Don't know where it's going
But I've seen it all before
All my life dreaming
Of some place so far away
Far away gotta getaway
Gotta getaway
